PathPoint Consulting to Support Cardinal Health’s HR Function in Transition to Shared Services Business Model

NORFOLK, Massachusetts – (October 1, 2005) – PathPoint Consulting, an organizational development and human resources consulting firm, announced that Cardinal Health has retained PathPoint to provide support to the Human Resources team as they transition from a traditional, decentralized, vertical functional model to a leading-edge HR Shared Services operating model.

In this assignment, PathPoint will work with the senior HR team as they re-align their governance structure, roles and responsibilities, and operating mechanisms. In addition, PathPoint will provide executive coaching services to HR leaders as they transition into and assume new roles.

“PathPoint has a long history of partnership with Cardinal Health’s Human Resources team,” says Van Latham, Ph.D., Practice Leader at PathPoint. “We look forward to working with these outstanding HR leaders as they change how HR is delivered to bring more value to the business.”
