PathPoint Consulting to Work with Dell Computer Corporation to Design a Leadership Development Program for High-Potential Human Resources Professionals

HOPKINTON, Massachusetts – (May 12, 2003) – PathPoint Consulting, an organizational development and human resources consulting firm, announced that Dell Computer Corporation has selected PathPoint Consulting to assist the company in developing a leadership development program for the company's Human Resources Organization.

In this assignment, PathPoint will provide curriculum guidance and content expertise during the program's design. In addition, PathPoint will develop the company's first ever 360-degree feedback survey targeted to HR professionals.

"Often times, we find that company HR departments are in the biggest need of leadership development," says Van Latham, Ph.D., Practice Leader at PathPoint. We are excited to work with Dell as they build a leading-edge HR function. We applaud the company's commitment to investing in their Human Resources function and building the leadership and technical skills of their HR professionals."

About Dell Computer Corporation
