PathPoint Consulting to Design and Develop a Mentoring Program for Harrah's

NORFOLK, Massachusetts – (June 1, 2006) – PathPoint Consulting, an organizational development and human resources consulting firm, announced that Harrah's has selected PathPoint Consulting to design and develop the company's mentor program for high potentials.

In this assignment, PathPoint will be working with the company's mentor program design team to build a mentoring curriculum to develop the company's high potentials. As a part of the program, PathPoint will be building an overall framework, detailed agendas for mentor-protégé meetings, and all program support and rollout materials.

"We are excited to be working with Harrah's on developing their mentoring program for high potentials," says Van Latham, Ph.D., Practice Leader of PathPoint. "We look forward to bringing our expertise in high potential development to this project, as well as build the program content to facilitate a high quality mentoring experience.
